Does child have any health conditions that should be known by PRWS camp leaders?

☐ YES ☐ NO If yes, please explain:

Does child need any medications to be administered by PRWS camp leaders?

☐ YES ☐ NO If yes, you will receive a medication form via email which will need to be signed and returned before the first day of camp.

By signing below you are giving consent in advance for medical treatment at an appropriate medical facility in case of emergency, stating that you are aware of and accept the risk inherent in this program and agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Pleasant Ridge Waldorf School instructors, staff, employees and management Board from any and all liability, loss, damages, or expenses which are sustained or required arising out of the action of your dependent in the course of this program.

Student and Parent Agreement: PRWS Summer Camp programs provide students with opportunities to learn in a different environment than in a typical classroom. The students will be generally spending many hours in the outdoors and engaging in a variety of hands-on activities. To ensure the safety and enjoyment of all, participants are expected to abide by the same behavioral guidelines that they would in their home school. Disruptive behavior and inappropriate language will not be accepted and may be grounds for dismissal. Additional guidelines and expectations may be shared by individual camp leaders based on the activities planned for their camp. Dismissals are ineligible for a refund. My child(ren) and I have read the above statement and understand the behavior guidelines set forth by the PRWS Summer Camp program: ☐ YES ☐ NO

Registration implies permission for summer camp photos to be used on the PRWS website, press releases or other publications without the student's name.
