Snow Removal Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who shoveled, scraped, salted, sanded, swept, or fired-up the blower to help clear snow and ice for the school this year. It took a herculean effort, yet all season long, the sidewalks of Pleasant Ridge were nicely tended to. Well done, and many thanks.

COMMUNITY NEWS

The Viroqua affiliate of the Christian Community will have a priest visit this weekend, April 13th and 14th. Friday, at the Turning Place, 2nd floor of the Landmark Center, 7:00 p.m. Who is included in the Christ Community? A discussion led by Reverend Paul Newton, who described it as such: "A major theme of the Act of Consecration of Man is the bringing of offering, and this goes beyond those who are physically present. We invoke 'all true Christians who are born' and the dead in our offering to the divine-spiritual world. How can we understand this? And how can this understanding strengthen our experience of the ritual?"

Saturday, at the Old Main Building 9:30 a.m. - Religious instruction and the Service for the Children - for children in 1st-8th grade; will be offered only if there are children to participate! Please let Jenny know if you are interested.

10:30 a.m. - The Act of Consecration of Man for adults - childcare provided if requested.

12:00 p.m. - Community meal at the home of Brian and Patty Wickert - bring a dish if you choose, but it is not necessary.

Rev. Newton will be available during the day Friday to meet with individuals. Call him at 773-877-9255 to arrange in advance.

For more information or to reserve a space for the Children's religious instruction and Service, and/or childcare for Saturday, contact Jenny Spann at 637-8759, or jennyspann@frontiernet.net.
