Pleasant Ridge Waldorf School is looking for an afternoon first grade story and rest support person to begin at the start of the 2024-25 school year. This afternoon assistant will support the work of the class teacher by reading stories and encouraging an afternoon rest for the first grade students.

This is an hourly position, paid bi-monthly. Hours will include 1 hour per day, 5 days per week (1:55-2:50pm) during scheduled school days. Hourly rate starts at $15 per hour. For specific details regarding this position and duties, a conversation between the first grade class teacher and administrator will be scheduled.

Qualifications and Benefits
Qualities we are seeking include warmth and attention to the well-being of the young child. A love of reading and storytelling are also required to enjoy this position.

Our School and Community
The mission of Pleasant Ridge Waldorf School is to provide a full Waldorf education to children in early childhood through eighth grade and to be a vital and active part of the Driftless region. Founded in 1980, the school is solidly established with an enrollment of approximately 160 students. The school has full member status through WECAN and AWSNA. Dedicated and compassionate teachers, staff, and parents work side-by-side to tend to the dignity and well-being of our children and community of adults. Additionally, we strive to cultivate a harmonious and diverse school community that is ecologically sustainable, financially responsible, morally diligent, socially renewing, and spiritually striving.

Pleasant Ridge Waldorf School does not discriminate in employment practices on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, gender, age, marital or family status, disability or any other basis prohibited by federal, state or local law.
